

Int. Well, um, when you were at school, did you do, you'd have s-, been working about the farm even before you left school.

JMc Aye. Aye, working on the farm here, aye.

Int. Uh-huh.

JMc Aye.

Int. So your, your mother and father were here what

JMc Aye, my u-

Int. kind of farming were they doing?

JMc Aye, my uncles was here. Oh, they kept a lock of c-, kept a lock of milk cows that time, a lock of pigs and a lock of hens and a lock of turkeys. But we never had any geese, now. But that was just the, the usual.

Int. What farming did you do, then, yourself? What was your particular interest in farming or -

JMc - Grow s-, grow spuds and grow corn and stuff the like of that.

Int. Uh-huh.

JMc Cabbage and stuff the like of that.

Int. Mm-hm, mm-hm. Well, do you remember the corn being grew and threshed and -

JMc Oh, God, I do surely. - The woman of the house always went, my mother always went to the field, pirdie field for everything. Cabbage and,

Int. Mm-hm.

JMc for the cabbage and the turnips and the carrots and the beans and peas.

Int. Mm-hm.

JMc Now there's none of that anymore.

Int. Mm-hm, mm-hm. Well, just

JMc In my time it was the creamery lorry, the creamery cans was all that time, for lifting the milk that time.

Int. Uh-huh.

JMc Sure there's no, it's all milked, it's all t- bulked now.

Int. Well, do you ever remember, you said you went to school in the creamery here. Was it ever a creamery in your time?

JMc No, it was closed. I don't mind the creamery going there, now.

Int. Mm-hm. But it was at one time?

JMc Oh, it was a - going concern one time [now] away back, away in the thirties.

Int. And there was a mill there at one time too [XX]

JMc There would have been, aye.

Int. Uh-huh. Was the mill-race somewhere from about here [XX]

JMc Aye, it was, aye, over, over, over in a field of ours, it went down, it was, water went down past.
