

All the talks are in Room 1.20, Dugald Stewart Building, 3 Charles Street. Coffee and lunch are served in the Common Room, on the 7th floor of the same building.

Friday, 6th June
9.00–9.50	Registration
9.50–10.00	Opening
10.00–10.30	Laura Arman (University of Manchester) In search of unaccusative verb
10.30–11.00	Florian Breit (University College London) Establishing the limits of Welsh auxiliary deletion in conversation and experiment
11.00–10.30	David Willis (University of Cambridge) Variation and change in modals and negative concord in northern Welsh
11.30–11.45	Coffee break
11.45–12.45	Poster session
12.45–13.45	Lunch
13.45–14.15	Gregory Toner (Queen's University Belfast), Máire Ní Mhaonaigh (University of Cambridge), Sharon Arbuthnot (Queen's University Belfast) Serving two masters: Revising and Repurposing eDIL
14.15–14.45	Guto Rhys (University of Glasgow) The early evidence for language in Pictland reconsidered
14.45–15.00	Coffee break
15.00–15.30	Steve Hewitt (UNESCO) Welsh 'syntactic mutation' and Arabic 'faulty accusative': case or configuration?
15.30–16.00	Elena Parina (Philipps-Universität Marburg & Institute of Linguistics RAS) Polysemy patterns of Welsh adjectives: how much language interference is there?
16.00–17.00	Máire Ní Chiosáin (University College Dublin) Perception of secondary palatalization contrasts: a comparative study
19.00	Conference dinner at The Doric, 15-16 Market Street

Saturday 7th June

10.00–11.00	Ruibéard Ó Maolalaigh (University of Glasgow)	Glottal features in Gaelic languages
11.00–11.15		Coffee break
11.15–11.45	Koldo Sainz (independent researcher)	Irish and Gaelic VSO: C-T Relations, F and Labeling in Diachrony
11.45–12.15	Joseph Windsor (University of Calgary)	The External DemP Hypothesis: Evidence from Irish
12.15–12.45	Jon Mills (University of Kent)	Middle Cornish Lexical Register: the Role of Etymology
12.45–14.15		Lunch
14.15–14.45	Anna Bosch (University of Kentucky)	A Phonological Sketch of St Kilda Gaelic
14.45–15.15	Jonathan Morris (Cardiff University)	The Sociolinguistics of (r) in Northern Welsh
15.15–15.45	Claire Nance (Lancaster University)	Phonetic variation among young Gaelic speakers in Glasgow and Lewis
15.45–16.00		Coffee break
16.00–17.00	Gillian Ramchand (University of Tromsø)	VSO languages and word order ‘parameters’

Poster session programme

Holly Kennard	University of Oxford	Breton word order in matrix clauses: evidence from two generations of speakers
Anton Kukhto	Moscow State University	Some Remarks on Munster Irish Stress
Marieke Meelen	Leiden University	Challenges and opportunities annotating historical Welsh
Christine Sheil	University of California, Berkeley	The Function of Scottish Gaelic ‘Headless Clefts’ in Narratives
Natasha Warner Ian Clayton	University of Arizona Boise State University	Spoken Word Recognition and the effects of Gaelic Initial Consonant Mutation
Daniel Brenner	University of Arizona
Andrew Carnie	University of Arizona
Michael Hammond	University of Arizona
Muriel Fisher	University of Arizona
