The Thirteenth Manchester Phonology Meeting

Thursday 26th - Saturday 28th May 2005

Held at
Hulme Hall, Manchester

Organised by a collaboration of phonologists at the University of Edinburgh, the University of Newcastle upon Tyne, the Université de Montpellier-Paul Valéry, the University of Manchester, the Université de Toulouse-Le Mirail, and elsewhere.

With support from the British Academy and the Linguistics Association of Great Britain
Welcome to the 13mfm

This booklet contains (i) details about the rooms which we’ll be using, some other information about things at and near Hulme Hall, and some further information which may be useful to you (on this page), (ii) the conference programme (on pages 3-6), and (iii) maps to help you find the restaurants that we’ll be eating at on Thursday and Friday night, and a pub where people often meet after the papers have finished (on page 7). If you have any questions about where things are, please feel free to ask one of the organisers.

Conference sessions
All the conference sessions (apart from the poster session) will take place in either the Old Dining Hall or the Seminar Room in Hulme Hall. These are in different buildings, but the buildings are very close to each other and the rooms will be signposted. It takes about a minute to walk between them. The Old Dining Hall is upstairs in the main building – just walk through the bar area and the modern dining hall. The Seminar Room is in the modern building which is opposite the entrance to the main building. The poster session will be held in the bar area, upstairs in the main building. The rooms for each session are clearly marked in the programme on pages 3-6 of this booklet.

Food
The midday meals on Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be in the modern dining room in Hulme Hall. You’ll find this easily if you go upstairs in the main building and walk through the bar area. The evening meals are in restaurants – details of these are given on page 7 of this booklet. The meals start at slightly different times, so please check the programme for this.

Coffee and tea breaks
Morning and afternoon breaks will be held in the bar area, which is upstairs in main building.

Publishers display and book/journal auction
There will be a book display at the mfm, which will double as an auction. All the money that is made from this will be used to fund the postgraduate discount on the conference price. The auction works like this: a number of volumes have been donated by publishers (CUP, OUP, Mouton de Gruyter, Benjamins, Blackwell, Palgrave and Hodder Arnold). These will be on display throughout the conference, so please feel free to leaf through them – the publishers want you to order them, after all. A piece of paper will be attached to each book for people to write their offers on. We’ll start with a reserve price and see how high the bidding goes – the highest offer at the end of the conference will get the book – you’ll be able to pick up the volume on Saturday, at the start of the midday meal, when we’ll also accept bids, as in a normal auction (payment by UK cheque or cash – no credit cards, but you could use your card to take out money from an ATM, including the one at Hulme Hall). There are also some leaflets and catalogues from publishers in your packs and by the books, which we hope will also be of interest to you; this includes order forms to get a discount on some titles.

Shops
There are lots of shops on Wilmslow Road, which is about 2 minutes’ walk from Hulme Hall. You can find it on the map on page 7 – this is also the road where the restaurant that we’ll be going to on Thursday night is situated.

Pubs
At the end of the day in previous mfms, people have tended to congregate in the Whitworth pub, which is about two minutes’ walk from Hulme Hall. It’s indicated on the map of page 7 of this booklet. There are naturally lots of pubs and bars in central Manchester, including several on Portland Street, which is just round the corner from the restaurant that we’ll be going to on Friday night.

ATMs
Some cash machines are available built into the wall near the entrance to the main building at Hulme Hall. There are several others on Oxford Road and, of course, hundreds in central Manchester. You should be able to use most, if not all, cards, including non-UK ones, in these machines.

Photocopying
There is a photocopier in the main foyer at Hulme Hall. You will need to buy a copy-card from the reception and copies cost 5p per sheet, but it’s not that easy to use – it would certainly be advisable to bring copies of handouts with you.

Email and internet access
There is some internet access available at Hulme Hall (in the lower foyer next to the Lecture Theatre which is in the same building as the Seminar Room), but this in only one old computer and will only be available during the day. We have been told that you can also buy internet access at ‘Diamond Communications’ on Wilmslow Road (this is the road where Thursday night’s restaurant is – see page 7). You need to turn left onto Wilmslow Road, and Diamond Communications is next to the traffic lights. There are many other internet cafes in Manchester, and you can also access the internet using blue phone boxes (which take coins or cards).

Posters

Bar Area 11.15-13.00 Friday

This is a chance for participants to read people’s posters and to ask the author any questions that they may have. Poster presenters will be near their poster for much of the session but will also probably want to have a look at other people’s posters. Please ask around if you can’t find the author of a poster that you’re interested in – they’re bound to be nearby and the idea of this session is to encourage discussion of the posters on display.

Pubs and restaurants

People often meet at the Whitworth pub (also known as the Whitworth Arms) after the talks have finished for the day. This is here:

Restaurant on Thursday evening
The Lal Heweli is on Wilmslow road, just about here-ish. The amount that you’ve paid with your booking form covers a full Indian banquet, and you’ll be asked to pay for any drinks that you have yourself.

Restaurant on Friday evening
The Tai Wu is on Oxford Street in central Manchester, right about here, just past the Palace Theatre, opposite Pizza Hut. You’ll have to pay for any drinks that you order at the restaurant tonight, too.

There are several pubs in the vicinity, including some on Portland Street – head north or eastwards.
