

Thursday 14th April 2016

9.30-10.00	Maciej Baranowski & Danielle Turton (Manchester & Newcastle) Unstressed vowel backing in Manchester English.
10.00-10.30	Claire Ashmore (Sheffield Hallam) Perceptions of Chesterfield and Chesterfield English.
10.30-11.00	Marten Juskan (Freiburg) Inverted priming effects when perceiving 'Scouse'.
11.00-11.30	Amanda Cardoso (York) Origins of PRICE nucleus raising in Liverpool English.
11.30-11.45	Tea, coffee & biscuits
11.45-12.15	George Bailey (Manchester) Velar nasal plus in the north of (ing)land.
12.15-12.45	Maelle Amand (Paris Diderot & Newcastle) A dynamic formant analysis of the FACE, PRICE, GOAT and MOUTH vowels in the DECTE corpus: variation and change in the Tyneside Linguistic Survey.
12.45-2.00	Dinner break
	Workshop on Northern English dialect literature
2.00-2.30	Jane Hodson (Sheffield) Putting the literature back into dialect literature: voice, genre and metalanguage.
2.30-3.00	Hugh Escott (Sheffield) Dialect representation in Yorkshire texts and socio-cultural accounts of literacy and orthography.
3.00-3.30	Patrick Honeybone (Edinburgh) What does it take and mean for a feature to be represented in dialect writing?
3.30-3.45	Tea, coffee & biscuits
3.45-4.15	Marie Jensen (Aalborg) Can you really Larn Yersel Geordie? A comparison of Tyneside popular dialect literature, corpus data and speaker perceptions.
4.15-4.45	Warren Maguire (Edinburgh) The phonology of early 19th century Tyneside English as revealed in Thomas Wilson's The Pitman's Pay.
4.45-5.15	Tea, coffee & biscuits
5.15-5.45	Sandra Jansen (Brighton) T-glottaling in two Cumbrian communities.
5.45-6.15	Tim Zee & Koen Sebregts (Radboud & Utrecht) Yorkshire Assimilation at the interface.
6.15 onwards	Wine reception [and, for those who book for it: evening meal from 8pm]

Friday 15th April 2016

9.30-10.00	Isa Buchstaller & Anne Krause (Leipzig & Freiburg) Changes across the life-span in the Tyneside FACE vowel.
10.00-10.30	Thomas Devlin (Sussex) Vowel shift in East Durham coal mining vocabulary.
10.30-11.00	Judith Taylor (Northumbria) Localised and regional perceptions of 'northernness'.
11.00-11.30	Ivor Timmis (Leeds Beckett) The Bolton/Worktown corpus: an historical spoken corpus with attitude!
11.30-11.45	Tea, coffee & biscuits
11.45-12.15	Hannah Leach (Sheffield) Priv[i:t] (ɪ)s – the curious case of the (ɪ) vowel in Stoke-on-Trent.
12.15-12.45	David Hornsby (Kent) The Northern English dialect of Aylesham, Kent. (Yes, you did read that right...)
12.45-2.00	Dinner break
2.00-2.30	Kate Burland (Leeds & Sheffield) Revisiting a 'northern shibboleth': FACE and GOAT variation and change in the dialects of Barnsley.
2.30-3.00	Paul Cooper (Liverpool) 'Some very perceptible differences in the dialect': the enregisterment of nineteenth century 'Yorkshire' dialects.
3.00-3.30	Natalie Braber & Nicholas Flynn (Nottingham Trent & Independent Scholar) What's n(j)ew in the East Midlands? An investigation into yod-dropping.
3.30-4.00	Chris Montgomery (Sheffield) Perceptions of Northern and Southern vowels in the English Fenland.
4.00	Close and farewell